

2010-11 AWARD RECIPIENTS

Maria Capecchi
Lower School Spanish Teacher

By attending two courses at the Zumba Academy in Houston, Mrs. Capecchi will become a licensed Zumba instructor, with an emphasis on teaching Zumba to kids between the ages of 4 and 12. She then plans to use what she's learned to introduce her Lower School students to Latin American dances, choreography and music.

Daniel Lewis
Sixth Grade History Teacher

During Mr. Lewis' nine-day summer tour of eight spectacular Greek cities, he'll shoot photos and videos that he plans to incorporate into historically accurate video lessons and interactive study guides—both of which will help bring history to life during his classes' annual five-week study of the Ancient Greeks.

Betty Babendure
Kindergarten Teacher

Mrs. Babendure's summer adventure will take place both indoors and out! First, she'll travel to Portland, Ore., for three language arts workshops with early literacy expert Nellie Edge, and then she'll explore the natural and horticultural wonders of British Columbia with visits to Vancouver Island's ancient rainforests and to the man-made majesty of Butchart Gardens.

Don Hicks
Director of Physical Education and Athletics

After four decades in physical education, Don Hicks believes there's still more to learn. That's why he's attending the 2011 ISM Summer Institute "Directing the Athletic and PE Programs," where he plans to gather new ideas and information he'll use to make St. Francis' athletic and physical education programs even better.
